BFS Pay and its Payment Providers recommend that you check with your bank, financial institution, and credit card company to determine what limitations are imposed on your Transaction Account or Credit Card. If BFS Pay and/or its Payment Providers are not able to execute payments according to your payment instructions for any reason, BFS Pay and/or its Payment Providers will not be able to make the payment you have authorized and will not be held liable for any costs, damages, and the alike caused by the failure to make the payment. Neither BFS Pay nor its Payment Providers have any obligation to try to execute your payment instructions for a specific payment more than once.

Authorized Users. If there are other authorized users on your Digital Services (as defined in your BFS Pay User Agreement), your Transaction Account or your Credit Card, you hereby authorize each of them to use the Digital Services. You authorize any signer on your Transaction Account or authorized user of your Credit Card to initiate payment instructions and make payments on your behalf, even if your Transaction Account or Credit Card otherwise requires multiple signatures or authorizations to conduct such activities.

Confidentiality. BFS Pay and its Payment Providers do not sell any of your personally identifiable information to a third party for their marketing purposes without your consent. - b. Lawfully required; or

- c. If you request or authorize it.

Your Liability. You agree to regularly and promptly review and verify all transactions through monthly statements received from your bank, financial institution, or credit card company related to your Transaction Account or Credit Card. If your bank, financial institution, or credit card statement shows unauthorized transactions by us, you must contact your bank, financial institution, or your credit card company immediately. Failure to do so may result in financial ramifications for you.

Our Liability. If the Payment Providers do not execute your payment instructions in a timely manner in accordance with the terms and conditions of these Payment Terms, the Payment Providers will be liable for your losses or damages, subject to the following exceptions. Neither the Providers nor BFS Pay or its affiliates (including, without limitation, Builders FirstSource, Inc. and WTS Paradigm, LLC) will be liable, for example, when:

For example, depth of foundation in relation to the frost line, differences in energy codes for building efficiency, wind loads in hurricane/tornado zones, snow loads in regions of the country where there is excessive snow, or local homeowner association requirements for construction. For these requirements, additional documents may be required from the Customer, an engineer, or local governing board and are not the responsibility of the Provider.

The Customer is Responsible To

- Engage any necessary professionals to review and/or adapt the plan for local code and site-specific requirements, including procurement of any necessary building permits. The layout of electrical, mechanical, and plumbing systems can also change details.
- Check all dimensions and details and verify conformance with governing code requirements for the geographic area in which the structure is to be built, prior to starting construction. All structural, mechanical and electrical requirements shall also be reviewed with a licensed professional before construction begins. Codes govern over drawings, and dimensions govern over scale.
- Ensure all work is in accordance with the latest edition of all applicable national, state, and local building codes. Also ensure that all work is conducted in accordance with the latest edition of all applicable construction standards.
- Ensure all materials, equipment, and components used in construction are new and of good quality and that all manufactured articles, material, and equipment are applied, installed, connected, erected, used, cleaned, adjusted, operated, and conditioned as per manufacturers requirements and as per industry standards. Follow all instructions to sustain and preserve all expressed or implied warranties and guarantees.
- Check all dimensions and details for overall accuracy appropriate to the local conditions and the final selection of materials such as masonry, floor joists, lumber, structural members, construction panels, roofing, etc., all of which can create variations in dimension and details. For example, if standard lumber joists are used in place of engineered floor joists, the floor-to-floor dimension would vary from the Home Plans and require revised stair dimensions and framing. Customer shall verify all dimensions in field prior to any fabrication.
- Perform or provide for construction supervision to ensure that construction conforms to the Home Plans. Provider has no responsibility for construction means, methods, techniques, sequences, procedures, or safety precautions in connection with the work.
